PFS CONSULTING SUPPORTS RBNZ WITH THE STRATEGIC REVIEW OF INTERIM SOLVENCY STANDARDS (ISS)

August 2024

MEDIA RELEASE

PFS Consulting assists the Reserve Bank of New Zealand (RBNZ) to strengthen their Prudential Framework with our review of their ISS.

PFS Consulting is pleased to have assisted the RBNZ with an external review of the Interim Solvency Standards (ISS) as described in their recent consultation package. This important work helps to ensure that the ISS continue to support RBNZ's prudential regulation of insurers. Our ability to contribute to prudential regulation highlights PFS's depth and experience as well as our independence. It builds on our work helping prudential regulators around the world execute their missions effectively.

About PFS

PFS Consulting is an actuarial and risk consultancy, with Principals and employees who have deep experience in the regulatory space. A number have worked for APRA or global insurance regulatory organisations, as well as in senior executive roles in regulated entities.

PFS is proud to remain an independent Australian owned company.
